

EN DEHORS GARDE BINGO

Hitch a ride home from the feminist bookstore with woman in red pickup truck	Write poems instead of articles about your research	Keep a stash of tampons past menopause because a sister might need help	Suffer neurasthenia	Rises from the subconscious... carcass covered with bluebottles (your country)
Fall silent because you can't speak about theory unless you 100% understand it	Message allies on FB because you'd rather be spied on by Russians than your bosses	Count citations and make sure 51% come from women	Ask someone who promotes human rights abuse to leave your restaurant	Hide because everyone hates ambition in women, plus you need this job
Insist that grids perpetuate the patriarchy & redesign this board as a spiral	Skip the meeting but steal boxed lunches with a friend & discuss body dysmorphia	EIPHANY: THERE IS NO FREE SPACE	Create a travel guide to a planet you've never visited	Call out panels/publishing venues populated only by white men
Volunteer to throw department party/ bring baked goods then descend into rage	Reserve the word "genius" for POC and white people who identify as women	Teach books that scare you in a good way	Blizzard the attorney general with sanctimonious snowflakes	You've gestated for so long—give birth to yourself
Discuss sexual harassment in a gender-binarized restroom	Vote for candidates who defend social justice energetically	Tell the least self-confident brilliant students that they're brilliant, convincingly	Listen to everyone except people who don't think you have a right to speak	Refuse to play bingo unless everyone wins
